By car - from the M40

From the north

Leave the M40 at Junction 9 and follow the signs for the A34 towards Oxford. Exit the A34 at Pear Tree Interchange, and follow signs around the Oxford ring road for the A40 until you reach Headington Roundabout (approx 5 miles)*.

From the south

Leave the M40 at Junction 8 onto the A40 towards Oxford until you reach Headington Roundabout (approx 6 miles)*.

*From Headington roundabout:

Take the A420 towards the city centre. This takes you through Headington and down a steep hill with a park on the left-hand side (South Park).

At the bottom of the hill are two sets of traffic lights. Go straight on at both sets.

40m after the first turning on the left (Rectory Road), and after a set of pedestrian crossing lights is the entrance to Angel Court - which has black railings and is before the Port Mahon pub and on the opposite side of the road to the Thai Orchid restaurant.

Parking is available in the courtyard, directly outside the office.

By bus

There are frequent (every 12-15 mins) coach services from central London to Oxford - follow links to Oxford Express X90 or Oxford Tube for details. Both services stop on St Clements, 100 yards from the Fast Track office.

By train

There are frequent services to Oxford from London, Reading and Birmingham. Details of train journeys can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk.

On arrival at Oxford station, take a taxi to our offices on St Clements, (approximately 15 minute journey, depending on the time of day).
