How the recruitment process will work

- Online assessment: all applications will be reviewed, and selected candidates will be asked to complete a one-hour online exercises
- Telephone interviews: after the online exercises have been assessed, shortlisted candidates will be telephone-interviewed by a member of the team, before we potentially invite you to one of our second-round interview evenings at Fast Track's offices in St Clements, Oxford
- Interview evening: we will aim to hold multiple dates between now and Wednesday 20 March, to accommodate as many candidates as possible. These interview evenings typically last from 5pm to 8pm, and will include candidates from across the roles.

We will start with a presentation about the company and the different roles, then candidates will have the opportunity to ask questions. This will be followed by one short written skills-based exercise (no preparation needed), a short individual interview, and a more informal chat with senior members of our team. (Note: these are not group interviews or tasks, merely a more efficient way for us to manage the time of our senior management team as we are recruiting for multiple roles)

- Follow-up final round interviews: all final-stage candidates for the more senior roles, and any other candidates where necessary, will be invited back for a final round of in-depth interviews, including with other members of the team.
